

1. Our new signs look so very nice, this one sits right out front welcoming everyone to our paradise!

2. Hey diddle diddle, it's not a cow, but a different barnyard animal is preparing to jump over the moon

3. Look high in the trees on the path you will see “_____” to grandmothers house we go.

4. You may have to step off the cart for this one but you'll be fine, because our dam rocks since “may 29...1965”

5. If you took a dump in this republic it would not be fine, it even says it right on the sign.

6. "Holiday Lakes walkers rest area"

7. The Last of the 26 is what I be , and the framing of a house surrounds me. Where Chesney and Buffet would hang out is where you will find thee. This entire rhyme rhymes with ____

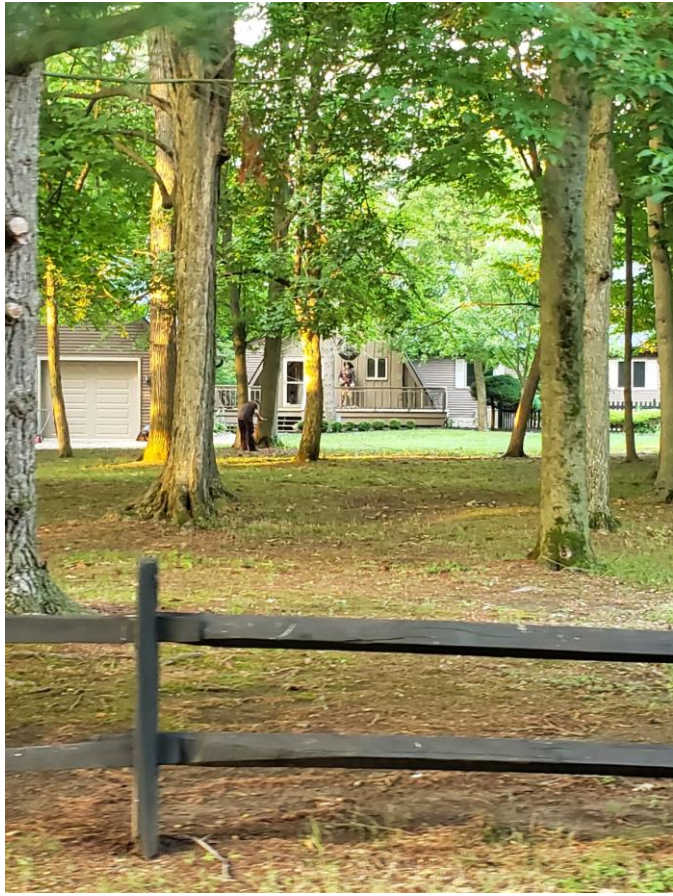

8. This flag with a slight distort is hanging proudly in support for those who daily put their lives on the line. Donning the blue to make sure we stay fine!

9. There are others around, but if you will, keep your eye out for an all white dutch style windmill.

10. If you had this ornament in your yard you could probably "Farmall" day and night

11. He would fly the jolly roger that is mostly black, your not looking for the flag though, for this one you must find a life sized captain Jack

12. I would assume a buckeye fan is not far for this gray house has a red roof with a red star.

13. When Captain Jack was a boy he would probably quip, I can't sail far in a playset pirate ship!

14. Not sure about this houses sense of direction, but it needs two identical compasses that should get your attention

15. A tisk it a task it, find a Holiday Lakes logo with a basket

16. If you know what house was a give away at the Cleveland home show you will have this one in the bag. On the porch of this house you will find Betsy Ross' original flag.

17. If you think you are a big fish, then watch yourself because this mailbox may lure you in.

18. You may not remember if your a millennial, but these tins were all the rage in 2003 for Ohio's _____

19. Look closely in the landscape I do not mean to trouble you, but standing proud in front of this house is a Crimson flashes "W"

20. With A Little Help From Your Friends, you could probably Come Together, and find a driveway with one of these in it, Don't Let Me Down. If one of the band is not there you will surely find some of it's (V)ery(W)ild relatives.

Hint: it is not on Penny Lane or Abbey Road